

I urge you to reject petition 04-160 from the National Association of Broadcasters. The ability to quickly receive traffic information in major cities is important for both public safety and efficient commerce in our nation. I do a lot of interstate driving and didn't always know where on the radio dial to get traffic information until XM Radio started broadcasting such information. It is a wonderful service. Respectfully submitted,
William Davidge
May 28, 2004